“More Than 1,200 Homeless Veterans Living on Los Angeles Streets Still Need Housing,”

Los Angeles Times, Jan. 5, 2017

CITY POLITICIANS HAVE REPEATEDLY
FAILED TO FULFILL THEIR PROMISES TO HOUSE HOMELESS VETERANS.

CITY OFFICIALS HAVE SAT BY WHILE AT LEAST
20,000 AFFORDABLE, RENT-CONTROLLED
UNITS HAVE BEEN TAKEN OFF THE MARKET.

CITY OFFICIALS CONTINUE TO APPROVE LUXURY
HOUSING PROJECTS THAT HOMELESS VETERANS AND WORKING FAMILIES COULD NEVER AFFORD.
