Paul Krekorian has jumped from Burbank... to Sacramento... to L.A.

With so many problems facing Valley families, you'd think Paul Krekorian would have his hands full with his job in Sacramento. But rather than fixing our schools or creating jobs, Paul Krekorian wants to jump to a new seat at City Hall.

1 First Paul Krekorian jumped to the Burbank School Board

2 Then Paul Krekorian jumped to the State Capitol

3 now, Paul Krekorian rented a place in L.A. so he could jump to the L.A. City Council

Call Paul Krekorian at his Sacramento office at (916) 319-2043. Tell him to finish his current job before he jumps to a new one.
