FUNDRAISING WINDOW OPENS FOR COUNCIL DISTRICT 6 RACE AS CITY COUNCIL CALLS SPECIAL ELECTION

The City Ethics Commission announced today that the fundraising window for the race for Council District 6 has opened after the City Council called a Special Election to fill a vacancy. Candidates interested in running for Council District 6 may now file fundraising paperwork with the City Ethics Commission.

Candidates must file fundraising and committee formation documents with the City Ethics Commission prior to soliciting or receiving contributions, making expenditures, or using personal funds on behalf of their campaigns. Candidates interested in running for Council District 6 should contact the City Ethics Commission at (213) 978-1960 for assistance with filing the necessary paperwork.
