

Lead and Reform LA:
David Ryu for City Council 2020
515 S. Figueroa St., Suite 1110
Los Angeles, CA 90071

INDICIA

FROM DAY ONE, David fought for tough anti-corruption reform, such as banning political donations from real estate developers. If David's colleagues on the City Council had his courage and leadership when he introduced these reforms over 4 years ago, perhaps we could have prevented or rooted out the corruption that stains City Hall today.

Councilman David Ryu Sets His Sights on City Hall Corruption

The District 4 councilman is again pushing efforts to boost accountability and reduce developer influence in City Hall

By John Regardie

In Los Angeles, enacting meaningful campaign finance reform is about as easy as pulling a tooth from a bear. Last December, the City...

TAKING ON THE POWERS THAT BE ... FIGHTING FOR REFORM

“The system puts too much power in the hands of too few people, and we need to spread out that power. We need to have more checks and balances.”

*For me it's about effectiveness. It's about results. And if you look at my track record, I am persistent, I am tenacious, and I get sh*t done.”*

— Councilman David Ryu

David authored and passed a motion to create a city Office of Anti-Corruption and Transparency, and seeks to create an independent body that would function as an inspector general.
