

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Senior Investigator*

Description

The Los Angeles City Ethics Commission is responsible for administering and enforcing state and City laws relating to governmental ethics, campaign financing, and lobbying. The Ethics Commission seeks an impartial and knowledgeable professional to serve as a Senior Investigator in its enforcement division. The position plans and conducts confidential investigations regarding alleged violations of laws within the Ethics Commission's jurisdiction. Key duties include investigating complaints; conducting legal and factual research; overseeing the work of junior investigators; drafting and serving subpoenas; interviewing and interacting with witnesses, respondents, attorneys, and other agencies; analyzing evidence and documents; making recommendations regarding investigations and enforcement matters; and assisting with administrative hearings. Occasional field work may be required.

Qualifications

The position demands a highly organized, analytical, and self-motivated individual, who demonstrates the following qualifications:

- Exceptional interviewing and interpersonal skills.
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills.
- Exceptional judgment and discretion.
- Ability to maintain strict confidentiality.
- Ability to understand, interpret, analyze, and effectively communicate complex laws.
- Ability to successfully guide and supervise the work of junior investigators.
- Ability to conduct research, gather relevant evidence, and apply laws to facts.
- Ability to use a variety of software programs and electronic technology.
- Flexibility and an ability to successfully juggle competing priorities.
- Ability to work well under pressure and in a politically sensitive environment.
- Ability to work well both independently and as a member of a diverse team.

The successful candidate must forego personal involvement in any political or partisan activity.

Training and Experience

A four-year degree from an accredited university with a major emphasis in criminal justice, public policy, or a related field is required. A legal or graduate degree is highly desirable. Significant full-time, paid investigative experience may be substituted for the educational requirement.

Compensation

The salary range is $95,734 – $139,958. The starting salary is $95,734, with fixed annual increases. In addition, the City offers a highly competitive benefits package, including health and disability insurance, vacation and sick leave, flexible work schedules, an independent retirement program, and a deferred compensation plan.

Application Process

Email cover letter, résumé, and a recent writing sample that is no more than five pages long to ethics.careers@lacity.org. Applications must be submitted by August 5, 2022, but the application window may close at any time. For additional information, contact Deputy Executive Director Heather Holt at (213) 978-1960.
